Background to the Class Rules re-write

The RG65 Class currently operates under the 2014 version of the Rules.

The RG65 Committee have, together with a number of contributors from within the class, sought to redraft these rules into a modern format while keeping the broad rule-set unchanged.

Some additional limitations have been included where necessary but it is unlikely that any RG65 boat compliant with the 2014 Rules will fail to continue to be compliant with the 2022 version of the rules.

The redraft of the Rules creates a solid base that will allow the class to further expand and improve in the future.
